THE WARTIME JOURNAL OF ROBERT WATSON, CSA/CSN

Edited by R. Thomas Campbell

VOICES OF THE CIVIL WAR

A Floridian, Robert Watson kept a journal throughout his service to the Confederacy in both the army and navy. He was assigned to the 7th Florida Infantry and saw action at Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain, and Missionary Ridge. Later transferred to the Confederate Navy, he served on the ironclad Savannah until it was destroyed to avoid capture. His account of coastal defense in Florida provides a rare look at the early part of the war in the Tampa area and includes much human-interest material on the seaman's life.
